

ALL SORTS OF LITTLE JOTS

News Notes of Street and Town Too Brief for Headings

Fair and warmer weather forecast for today.

Work has begun in earnest upon the Midway.

J. Meyers of Verdi died yesterday at the county hospital.

The Virginia street bridge is being handsomely decorated.

All the Reno meat markets will be closed all day on July 4th.

Conductor George Holman of the Sierra Valley road brought in a special lumber train last evening.

The social drummer, J. S. Corecco, joined the honorable order of E. C. B's., while out on his last trip.

Parties having rooms to rent during the Carnival should report the same at once to Sam Rosenthal.

Where to Witness Day Parades

The day parade on the Fourth of July will form on Second street, resting on Virginia.

The parade will move east to Center, north to Commercial Row, east to Lake, north to Fifth, west to Chestnut, south to Fourth, east to Sierra, south to Second, east to Virginia, south to the Queen's throne, where the parade will disband.

It is the desire of the parade committee to lay the line of march out through the business portions of Virginia and Commercial Row, but owing to the concessions and midway, in the opinion of the committee, it will be impossible for the parade to traverse these thoroughfares.

In case there is such a possibility the line of march will be changed to take in these two streets.

All property holders along the line of march are requested by the committee to have their dwellings and business houses present as handsome an appearance as possible.

A Slight Delay

When the trial run of the Troy Steam Laundry was made a fatal defect was discovered in the big mangle. Another of that size cannot be had this side of Chicago. A smaller mangle will be temporarily installed and the new laundry will be ready for business about the middle of next week.

Mining Men Here

W. A. Sleep of Nevada City and Thomas S. Ford of Grass Valley, attorneys for the Desert King Mining Company in the Wedekind litigation are in town on important business relative to the settlement of this important mining suit.

Graduation Exercises

The Journal acknowledges receipt of an invitation from Principal Ross to attend the commencement exercises of the class of '02 of the Virginia high school. The class numbers fifteen. The graduation exercises will take place this evening.

Tarrying Here

Major Fred B. Spriggs came in from the Reservation yesterday. He has just returned from the Ft. McDowell agency, which is also under his jurisdiction. The Major leaves for the Reservation today, but will return and spend Carnival week here.

Fatal Shooting in the Tenderloin

Another killing occurred in the Reno red light district yesterday afternoon and a Negro was again the victim. The swarming occupants of that quarter of the city were attracted about 2 o'clock by sounds of a quarrel at a crib on the east side of Dismal alley.

Three or four shots were fired in quick succession and the Negro rolled over in the alley, pierced through the lung with a pistol ball.

According to the testimony of several eye witnesses Eck Arbuckle and a hard looking customer that recently dropped into town proceeded to the crib in question which is occupied by May Miles, a dusky courtesan. They had placed carnival decorations in her rooms and demanded $2 in payment thereof. The Negro declined payment and called upon the Negro, one Hayes, to throw out the decorators, saying "Give them hell!"

The same witnesses say that Hayes obeyed the mandates of his lady love with a vengeance and knocked Arbuckle down beating him severely.

Arbuckle then drew his gun and fired three or four shots at his assailant, getting him once through the left lung, immediately above the heart.

Arbuckle's partner took to his heels. The entire populace of the shady quarter were too excited or prejudiced to tell a straight story and The Journal reporter finds his note book filled with conflicting testimony.

In a few moments a squad of officers arrived and the trail of the man who did the shooting was taken up. Officer Leeper followed him to the neighborhood of the Riverside mill, where Arbuckle disappeared into the willows. The officer and Manager Cox ascended to the tower of the mill where, looking down into the underbrush, they saw Arbuckle stealing through the willows. The policeman descended and entered the underbrush while Mr. Cox remained in the tower and signaled the direction the man was making. Mr. Leeper overtook him and captured him without a struggle. Arbuckle seemed terribly frightened and instead of offering resistance, clung to the officer as though he was his protector.

Arbuckle was taken to the station house. He was found to have been badly bruised by the Negro. After a brief examination he was locked up. Meanwhile the Negro lay in Dismal alley, mortally wounded. Joe Lachman drove along in his express wagon. The dying man was loaded on and instructions were given the driver to take him to Dr. Fee.

When in front of the Washoe County Bank the Negro expired and his body rolled out of the bus into the street. It was then conveyed to the morgue, where Coroner Peers will hold an inquest today.

There are two theories of the case maintained by the City and County officers. The latter appear to hold that the case is one of cold blooded murder and the former seem to believe that the homicide was partly justified.

The deceased came to Reno only a few days ago. He hailed from Berkeleyfield. Arbuckle has not resided in Reno for long. He was employed as barkeeper in the Palm saloon.

An Invitation Is Extended to All

The Committee on Night Parades extends an invitation to citizens to turn out in carriages on the evening of the 2d—coronation night. Lanterns will be furnished free for the decoration of carriages to all who make application at the Committee's headquarters in Wheelmen hall. Every one having carriages should participate in the parade and make the crowning of the Queen one of the features of Carnival week.

Barbers Will Be In It

The Barbers' Protective Union held a very interesting meeting last evening and decided to enter a first-class float in the Carnival parade. A special meeting of the Union will be held Sunday night at 8 o'clock sharp in Wieland hall.

Cash Prizes Are to Be Awarded

The Carnival Committee on Floats held a meeting last evening and decided to give a series of prizes to encourage efforts for private individuals, societies, etc., to put forth their best endeavors.

A first prize of $15 will be given for the best, largest and most appropriate float, and a prize of $10 for second best.

The Committee wishes it understood that no float can be awarded two prizes and the contest is open to all floats outside of those prepared under the supervision of the Committee.

The Committee reports that their latest advices indicate that at least 25 floats are in course of construction and perhaps double that number will be in line. Considerable secrecy is being maintained in certain quarters and it is difficult to gain information. The Committee is doing all in its power to assist those who are getting up floats, both in encouragement and financially.

First Big Event

The first big event of Carnival week will be the ball of the Reno Wheelmen's club, on Tuesday evening, July 1st. You are invited to be present and assist in starting Carnival week off in good style. The admission has been placed at 75 cents. Ladies free. Plenty of floor managers have been appointed to see to the comfort and enjoyment of those present. Mrs. Sauer's orchestra will furnish the music.

Paper hangers admit that our prices are low. If we can please them we can please you. Porteous Decorative Co.

Remove Obstructions

Contractors should so far as possible remove the building materials which now block the thoroughfares along the line of the Carnival parades.

Put your homes in order before the visitors come. See our wall paper. Porteous Decorative Co.

DO NOT HESITATE.

But have your watch, clock and jewelry done by expert workmen. FRANK GOLDEN JEWELRY CO.

Preparing for the Bicycle Parade

The management of the bicycle parade of the 4th report that from all indications the event will far surpass any previous attempt in that direction.

The Committee is kept busy from morning till night handing out decorations. All decorations are free, so call at once and trim your wheel up. Everybody invited to participate in the parade, so call and get your decorations soon as possible so as to avoid the rush during the last few days.

They Play Well

A surprise will be sprung during the Carnival when the Woodchoppers' band is heard from. Felix Vaghiotti has brought a dozen of his men in from the mountains and they are practicing every evening. Several members of the band are splendid musicians.

A Hat Sale

Ladies—At Mrs. Phelan's millinery parlors you will find flop hats in black and white, and red and tan, sailors in the genuine "young" shape, heavy triple brim jumbo straw, new. Also an elegant line of dress hats at reduced prices. J24w1

Miners Will Come

All of the Comstock mines will suspend work on July 4th and 5th and as no work except what is positively necessary is done on Sunday, the shutdown will give miners and other employees a three-days' holiday.—Enterprise.

DEMOCRATIC SIMPLICITY AND ORIENTAL GRANDEUR

There is a vast difference between them. This is more apparent in personal adornment perhaps than anything else. One of the reasons so many Reno people have their clothes made by me is that I make their clothes in a stylish manner, yet neither gaudy nor plain. Let me take your measure the next time you need a suit of clothes, and the force of this argument will strike you in a more convincing manner. SIDNEY C. CARMELITA'S CORONATION

The Grand Pageant That Will Usher in the Carnival

On Wednesday night, July 20, Queen Carmelita and her Royal retinue will make a triumphant entry into our city. The coronation ceremonies give promise of being the most spectacular of Carnival features. At from the residence of Mrs. S. N. Wheeler on Sierra street and proceed to the throne, which is to be erected just south of the park, as is also a grandstand that will accommodate a large number of people.

This first appearance of Queen Carmelita and her retinue marks the opening of Reno's first Carnival and Street Fair.

Many noteworthy attractions will combine in making this coronation a pageant long to be remembered. Prof. Krall's magnificently trained chorus of sixty-five voices will sing the anthems; the Court Jester has a stock of rare topics to spring, and other numerous preparations are well under way.

Good value in our wall paper, paint and brushes. Porteous Decorative Co.

They Expect to be in the Lead

The Carson Wheelmen have ordered their new racing suits, which are to make their first appearance on the Reno track in competition with the champions of the Pacific Coast, for that title. They will be knitted to order in the Club's colors and will only differ from the usual outfit of the sort in that they will have the name "Carson" on the back instead of the breast as formerly, says the News. In all previous races with the Reno boys, Carson has been in such a position that the Reno riders had only to turn around and glance back to see the name on the sweaters. This time, however, the boys propose that the Reno man shall look ahead and be able to read the name.

As the time draws near for the opening of the Reno Carnival Carson becomes more and more interested.

A cartload of wall paper put in stock this spring. Come and make a selection. Porteous Decorative Co.

Carson's Selection

The Warren Engine Company of this city, has selected Miss Kate Vogt to act as their Fair Queen for the Fourth of July parade in Reno. Miss Vogt is one of Carson's fair and popular daughters and a better selection could not have been made by the company to represent them on that day. —News.

Coming to Reno

Contractors on the cut-off fear that there will be a wholesale desertion by the thousands of men under their employ when the bands begin to play next week.

Plenty of Money

Including returns from Queen contest money subscribed, sale of concessions and other sources the Carnival Committee will have in the neighborhood of $10,000 at its disposal.

TENTS TO RENT.

Call on Sam Rosenthal if you want to rent tents in which to accommodate lodgers during Carnival week. The committee of which he is chairman has received 200 tents 16x16. They will accommodate eight cots. They will be leased for the season for $3 apiece. J25td

SEASON TICKETS.

The season tickets for the grand stand are selling rapidly. Only a limited number of these tickets will be sold. Tickets on sale at Rosenthal & Armanko's and Nelson's cigar stores. These are the reserved seats in the grand stand. Be sure and get yours before they are all gone. J25tf

NOTICE AND WARNING.

All parties, young and adult, are hereby warned not to fire or explode, or cause to be fired or exploded, any firecrackers, beacons, or other explosive material on the public streets and sidewalks of the town of Reno during Carnival week. This precaution becomes necessary as a preventive against fires and accidents. The public generally are requested to assist in enforcing this order. By order of the Town Board. J24w2

District Attorney.

Engagement by the Russell Players

The Russell Players will open an engagement at the opera house commencing Monday evening next. From the reports that come from Carson, where they are now playing an engagement, every play is worth seeing. The opening play will be Michael Strogoff, a powerful dramatization of Jules Verne's wonderful story. This play is one of the strongest and best that has been offered the Reno theatre-goers in some time and will no doubt have a crowded house. During the week the bill will be changed from melodrama to comedy so that all sorts of temperaments can be pleased. Remember that the prices are popular and that reserved seats for the entire week can be secured at Rosenthal's. The following letters remain uncalled for in the Reno Postoffice, June 27, 1932:

Pure prepared paint, ready for use. Pure materials. Porteous Dec. Co

Teachers Not Chosen

A meeting of the City Board of Education was held yesterday afternoon at the Jameson residence. The purpose of the meeting was to choose teachers for the ensuing year. On motion of Trustee Aitken, seconded by Trustee Fletcher, it was decided to postpone this business until after the organization of the new board.

Plenty of Room

There are only 25 prisoners in the county jail, while the accommodations are for 80. There is room, therefore, for 55 more of the criminal disolute now in the city. The officers will see that a few of them land there. All kinds of hard characters are congregating here, just as they do wherever public amusements like street fairs are held.

WHEELMEN DANCE.

The Wheelmen dance next Monday evening, July 20, will be a fit opening for the festivities of Carnival week. Everybody is invited to attend. The best of music has been engaged and a good time is assured. Admission will be 75 cents, ladies free.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

An assault being made upon our electrician and inspector, Mr. Pennell, the other evening, and believing that it was uncalled for, the Nevada Power, Light and Water Company must absolutely refuse to connect work done by those parties until they have apologized to Mr. Pennell and the apology accepted by him. The names of the parties are Eli Van Waggoner, Kelly Van Waggoner and Frank Dalton. J26w1

CHAMP CLARK.

THE JOURNAL has frequently published extracts from the Washington letters of Champ Clark, the wide-awake Missouri congressman and witty newspaper correspondent. He furnishes weekly letters to the Augusta (Me.) New Age, from which our extracts have been taken, and from the numerous reproductions in the Democratic and Silver papers of the State, we infer that our journalistic brethren concur in our judgment as to their merit. He was an invited guest at the Democratic State convention in Maine, where he made the principal speech, which was replete with logic, pathos, wit and humor and which set the Pine State Democrats as wild with enthusiasm, as Mr. Bryan's notable speech at the Chicago convention, six years ago, found the hearts of the Democracy of the nation and secured for him the presidential nomination. In our opinion the Democracy might go further and fare worse than in making Champ Clark their standard bearer in 1904.

While at Augusta, a reporter of the New Age asked Mr. Clark for some particulars of his life, which elicited the following reply:

"Your request that I tell you all about myself and throw in two or three stories, all in 750 words, reminds me of an introduction I heard a rural chair, man give an ambitious candidate: 'Ladies and gentlemen, Mr. Vere de Vere will now tell you all he knows—in ten minutes.' When I was a boy back in the hill country of Kentucky, I heard a man preach who knew much more about theology than about grammar. After reading his text he said: 'Brethren and sisters, the whole gospel is all squz up in that one little verse.' When Abraham Lincoln was asked by the compiler of the Congressional Directory for particulars of his early life, he replied, 'They may be all compiled in one poetic line, 'The short and simple annals of the poor,' an answer literally true and full of pathos. If my biography were 'all squared up' in a few words, it would run thus: 'Forty odd years of unremitting toil.' I can't remember back to a time when I was not at hard labor of some sort—on a farm, in a store, teaching school, editing a newspaper, practicing law, serving as a legislator. I began teaching before I was 15 and was president of a college at 23.

The happiest hours of my life were when I graduated, when I was married and when my children were born; the saddest, when two of them died. A sweet baby is the greatest luxury in nature.

I have been defeated once for a nomination and twice at the polls. Have been elected several times. A newspaper reporter once asked me how it feels to be defeated. That depends on circumstances and temperament. The first sensation is that produced by an ice water bath. Then one of anger. Then a determination to pick your flint and try it again. That's the effect on a healthy, robust, resolute man. Some have had their hearts broken by defeat—Horace Greeley, for instance.

The sweetest recollection of my professional life is that while prosecuting attorney, though I sent a good many persons to the penitentiary, I let 25 off with fines or jail sentences whom I could have sent to the penitentiary. They were boys indicted for their first offense. Of the 25, 24 are good citizens today. The other was an incorrigible, natural born thief, and served a term.

What was the greatest fee I ever received? The love of men whose lives I saved and the gratitude of their wives and children."

THE COAL BARONS MANIFESTO.

THE following is one of the manifestos sent out by the coal barons to educate the people.

"There cannot be two masters in the management of business. Discipline is essential in the conduct of all business. You cannot have discipline when the employe disregards and disobeys the reasonable orders and directions in the conduct of business of his superior officer, relying on some outside power to sustain him. Your organizations have no power to enforce their decrees, and thereby insure discipline, and we have no power to maintain discipline, except the power to discharge."

In former times when the divine right of kings to rule was more generally accepted than now as the guiding principle in the selection of a ruler, the same doctrine was preached and believed—"we can have but one master"—which in the sense intended by our Savior, is doubtless correct.

But as the devil can quote Scripture to suit his purpose, so can his followers of latter days, pervert the sacred word for the furtherance of their nefarious ends. In the establishment of slavery, the same idea found lodgment in the minds of men. It is a pernicious and offensive doctrine as so misconstrued, and those who preach it are hypocrites and enemies to the best and most sacred institutions of our republic.

There are those who profess to believe that the recognition of this doctrine as they interpret it is of more importance than the wage scale, the hours of labor, or the prices of the necessities of life. There is a tendency to formulate the opinion that the employer and the affairs of the employe are of paramount importance, but that little attention is due to the interest, comfort or general welfare of the men that toil. This is the general idea prevailing the coal barons manifesto, above quoted.

In the final arbitrament the Almighty will not discriminate between the employer and the employe, nor will the words of the Master be tortured into a meaning at variance with the spirit that inspired their utterance.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT'S message to Congress is an appeal to the Republican party to throw off the selfishness that is now in it, and to give to the Cubans "all possible chance to use to the best advantage the freedom, of which Americans have such right to feel proud and for which so many lives have been sacrificed." Can the senate come up to the president's level of statesmanship and political expediency in the Cuban matter? They reach it easily enough on his policy towards the Filipinos.

OH! for a score of Champ Clarks in Maine! or a score of speeches by him throughout the State. If this glorious thing could only happen the Republican majority would shrink marvelously, we believe. It is not improbable, either.—Augusta, Me., New Age.

THE sculptor of the Jefferson Davis arch at Richmond is a Connecticut Yankee. There is no sectionalism in art.

ELKS' COUNTRY STORE.

The store will begin to assume shape tomorrow. We are building it out of specially finished lumber and it will be a beauty. No inside rooms in our store. While we have some bargains that are jokes, most of our articles are valuable. You will get your money's worth every time.

AN AUTHOR SPEAKS.

The late Charles H. Warner—author, editor and traveller—while bathing in Great Salt Lake remarked to a friend, that in all his travels he never before saw such a glorious combination of salt sea bathing, blue sunlit skies, pure mountain air and pretty women and happy children. The only transcontinental line passing directly through Salt Lake City is the Rio Grande System. It is also the "Scenic line of the world." No European trip of equal length can compare with it in grandeur of scenery or wealth of novel interest. All agents sell through tickets to the East by way of the Rio Grande lines. Send for pamphlets to F. W. Thompson, General Agent, 525 Market street, San Francisco; J. D. Mansfield, General Agent, 124 Third street, Portland, W. C. McBride, General Agent, 47 E. MINERAL EMPIRE

Nevada is a State of Unlimited Possibilities

In the Olinghouse district, Washoe count, recent assays of ore taken from the Point mine run as high as $840, and the three mills are crushing steadily on the low-grade ore dumps, which average $15 per ton. Altogether the mining prospects in the canyon seem to be very promising, says the Pacific Coast Miner.

The mining life of Nevada has increased wonderfully during the past few months, as mining men in search of opportunities realize more and more the unlimited possibilities of this great mineral-region and as mining capital, especially of the East, turns in increasing volume to this enormous mineral field so filled with nature's mineral bounties.

Here is a mineral empire of 112,000 square miles, which has only just begun to be discovered. It lies squarely in the path of the westward movement of population, capital and industry, is potentially one of the greatest mineral regions of the world and will be possessed by the restless invaders who are now turning to the Pacific region with energy, intelligence and capital. Progress will be certain and persistent and Nevada has a magnificent statehood assured her.

There is now more general activity in prospecting, mine development and mining investment in Nevada than ever before in its history. This partly is a natural result of the advertising which the mineral resources of the State have been receiving. Very effective exhibits of the minerals of Nevada were made at the Chicago world's fair and then at the last Paris exposition and the PanAmerican exposition at Buffalo, the last two mainly by the Southern Pacific Company.
J. A. and E. B. Yerington were prominently connected with these enterprises and during the Buffalo exposition E. B. Yerington remained with the exhibit to meet the many whose interest was excited by it.

Recently E. H. Prentice, division freight and passenger agent of the S.
P. Co., at Reno, has been collecting interesting mineral specimens and forming small exhibits to be displayed at leading depots and ticket offices.
One of these collections has been placed in the main office on Market street, San Francisco. The discovery of the remarkable Tonopah district has also been effective influence in turning attention to Nevada's mines.

RENO PEOPLE TAKE NOTICE.

Three more of those choice lots in the New Southside Addition to Reno were sold yesterday and from now on they will go fast, so take our advice and get one or two for a home or speculation. They must increase in value. Buy now before the choice ones are gone. They will never be cheaper and before the year is out, yes, in fact, just as soon as the railroad commences building on its new possessions near Reno, outsiders will want them. Now is your chance. Be
